- Must be at least one year out of High school.
- Must be willing to serve the camp in areas outside of role when needed.
- Must have a minimum of one year of experience being a camp counselor.
- Must have a reliable form of transportation.

General Responsibility:

To support Cooperstown Bible Camp's mission and purpose of connecting campers to Christ. The Advocacy Counselor serves as a counselor to our counselors. They will come along our counselors and assist them when needed under direction of the Program Director. Along with being a counselor to our counselors, they will also serve as a para-counselor for campers who need more one on one supervision or instruction. Their focus is to work alongside the Program Director to ensure our counselors have the support they need. Along with these things the Advocacy Counselor will also serve as support staff when needed to ensure that Camps needs are able to be met throughout the summer camping season.

Specific Responsibilities:

1. To work alongside all other staff living in Christian Community to create lasting relationships.
2. Serve as a Counselor to our Counselors to ensure they have the support they need to thrive.
3. Have high energy, kindness, and patience at all times with campers.
4. Disciplining behaviors when safety is compromised.
5. Responsible for helping in setting up and taking down of all camp activities when needed.
6. Serve as a Para-Counselor for our campers that need one on one supervision.
7. Follow all CBC standards and agree with the EFCA statement of faith.
8. Represent the camp and its purpose in a positive manner when you are in public.
9. Possess an attitude and actions which continually reflect that Christ lives in you.
10. Follow all standards set forth by the Camp Directors.

Essential Functions:

- Have a relationship with Jesus Christ and a passion to grow in that relationship.
- Ability to stay focused and work nontraditional hours to make certain the job is well done.
- Create a welcoming and open environment for all campers, guests, and other staff members.
- Ability to work independently when needed and be a team player.
- Eager to learn new things and a willingness to serve wherever needed.
